Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the book of Wisdom (2:23-3:9)

Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are with his holy ones, and his care is with his elect.

Responsorial Psalm:

“Psalm 34– “Taste and See”

by Marty Haugen

REFRAIN: Cantor, then All

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, God's praise ever in my mouth.
Glory in the Lord for ever, and the lowly will hear and be glad.
2. Glory in the Lord with me, let us together extol God's name.
I sought the Lord, who answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
3. Look to God that you might be radiant with joy, and your faces free from all shame.
The Lord hears the suffering souls, and saves them from all distress.

Gospel Acclamation from Mass of Joy and Peace

Refrain (Cantor, then All):

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia. Al-lelu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

Verse: *Whoever loves me will keep my word,
and my Father will love him, and we will come to him.*

A reading from the Gospel according to Luke (17:7-10)

Jesus said to the Apostles: "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here immediately and take your place at table'? Would he not rather say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat. Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat and drink. You may eat and drink when I am finished'? Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded? So should it be with you. When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.'"
