FROM THE DESK OF FR. BILLY DODGE

Due to the large amount of emails and phone calls that come to me, it often takes me a while to respond, or sometimes the message gets lost in the shuffle. I may be about to call a parishioner back, but then the hospital calls for an emergency Sacrament of Anointing or some other emergency comes up and I lose track of the other message.

If you have a message to send me, or want to schedule a time to meet with me, please contact my office assistants at the parish offices (Ellen Smith at BSP and Sandy Johnston at RNC). I meet with them each day Monday-Friday. You can find their contact information in the bulletin or the parish websites. If you want to meet with me please contact them and suggest several times that work in your schedule (give me a couple different days of the week and times), then they will check with me at my daily meeting with them and get back to you at a time to meet. You are still welcome to email me directly, but I cannot promise I will get back to you in a timely manner.

I apologize if this is an inconvenience, but trying to manage two parishes with over a thousand families, along with an active college ministry, is a lot to handle. So I appreciate your understanding as I find the best way to make myself accessible to as many people as possible.

Gratitude From Soup and Sustenance Guest Speaker Luccas Herro

Dear Roncalli Newman/ Blessed Sacrament Parishes,
I am so grateful for the opportunity to speak with you last Friday at your Soup & Sustenance event. What a fantastic group of people! As a Catholic, this one was truly special. On top of the multitude of things I discuss when I speak at events, I was able to share what I experienced after our time on the physical earth is over to a group of believers. I love sharing that experience with anyone willing to listen. God brought me back to the physical earth to share with others what He has so graciously shared with me. Thank you for having me. I feel honored to be included in your event.
Sincerely, Luccas Herro

Campus Ministry Corner

After touring the Newman center before college it was a huge part of my decision to come to UWL. From day one I have called Newman my home away from home- somewhere I feel comfortable, safe, and seen known and loved by Him and by literally everyone who walks in those doors. Newman is not only full of smiling faces, or thousands of hugs, or good food or amazing events always being put on- it has also transformed me from a place of going through the motions to a heart set on fire- this yearning to run towards Heaven with all of my new "family". From Adoration to my amazing friends who have been there every step of this crazy college journey - you can see Him working all day everyday there.
