FROM THE DESK OF FR. BILLY DODGE

Who taught you the truths of the Catholic faith? Such a person was a catechist, a fancy word for someone who teaches the faith. This Sunday is "Catechetical Sunday" where we recognize those who have taken up the role of catechizing in our youth and adult programs. But there is a sense in which every baptized Christian is called to be a catechist. There are so many excellent resources for learning about the faith - examples include Formed.org, Bishop Barron's Word on Fire Institute, Father Michael Schmitz's Bible in a Year and Catechism in a Year podcasts, Hallow app, the Lectio Eucharist multi-parish program running this fall, countless Youtube videos, podcasts, and so much more. God is infinite, we are finite. There will always be something more for God to reveal to us. It is a lifelong adventure. I am simply encouraging you to take another step.

We welcome both Roncalli Newman and Blessed Sacrament parishioners, as well as anyone in the La Crosse area who might be interested in learning more about campus ministry. See

We grow in our love for someone as we get to know them better. Would you like to grow in your love for Jesus Christ through coming to know Him better? Reading a few pages of the Catechism each day will help you deepen your understanding of His incredible love for you. A modest schedule of 15 paragraphs per night (roughly 3 pages) has been arranged that will take about 10-15 minutes of reflective reading, 5 nights a week over 38 weeks, beginning Sept. 18th. A schedule is emailed to participants every two weeks. To sign up, email Ann Lankford at alankford@diolc.org with the word Catechism in the subject line. There are usually more than 100 people who participate each year and they express that the fruits are well worth the effort. Please invite your friends to join.

Discovering the Eucharist in the Old & New Testaments

Join us for an in depth look at where the Eucharist is found throughout the pages of the Bible. Learn our Jewish roots which help us understand the true source and summit of the Catholic faith, the Eucharist. Dr. Pitre reveals better understanding of the original Greek and Hebrew text of the Bible, showing us how true meaning is lost in the translation in our modern Bibles. Through his teachings, Dr. Pitre helps us see how the Eucharist is part of God's divine plan.
