FROM THE DESK OF FR. BILLY DODGE

Last year at Oktoberfest my brother Dustin and I were able to get a photo with Blessed Sacrament parishioners and reigning Festmaster & Frau - Douglas & Kimberly Kratt.

I make an annual appearance at the Oktoberfest grounds to celebrate my German heritage and provide a visible Catholic presence. I meet many people who would not normally enter the doors of a Catholic church. People will place bets if I am really a Catholic priest or simply dressed up in a Halloween costume. Along with all the new people I encounter, I also run into many familiar people like the Kratts! We shall see what this year brings. Prost!

AROUND THE PARISHES

Welcome new BSP parishioners!

Warmest welcome to Christian Kapanke & Maggie Burgmeier and their daughter Ayla who recently joined Blessed Sacrament Parish.

BSP Adoration Chapel Update

The Adoration Chapel is open 24/7 with a code needed for entrance during the evening hours into the morning. We have adjusted the hours to where a code is needed from 8:00pm to 10:00am. Members of either parish can call the office if you plan on visited the chapel during those locked hours.

Family Faith Formation

Family Faith Formation meets this Wednesday October 4th 5:30pm-6:45pm at Mary Mother of the Church for our first lesson, The Mission of Our Family. Contact Kristin with any questions kjohnson@mmocla-crosse.org 608-788-5483 Ext. 4

Made for More: High School Retreat- Saturday October 28th

Young people all over the world are giving up on their faith and the Church. As a result, they are finding themselves deeply unsatisfied with life. Generation Z is the most anxious, depressed, and despairing generation to walk this Earth. Now more than ever young people need to re-learn who God is, who they are, and their purpose in life. The things of this world will never truly satisfy us... we are 'made for more'. All high school youth (9th-12th grade) are invited to attend this transformative retreat! It will take place at Mary Mother of the Church, beginning at 9am and concluding after the 4pm vigil Mass. The cost is $20 a person and includes lunch and a t-shirt. Registrations close on October 22nd. To register your high schooler/s, simply scan the QR code located at right.

Advent Christmas Jar Reminder - The Fair will be here before you know it!

Blessed Sacrament Women's club began Christmas jar tradition in 2019. The Advent Christmas Jar project is for the women's many charitable donations. So many of the women suggested we continue the project. This is an explanation for those not familiar with the project and a gentle reminder for those who have started their donation jar. Select a jar, or anything else you have to collect spare change each day. All coins are dedicated to the jar all year long, and during the week before the Advent Christmas Fair the donations are brought to the office, collected by a Women's club volunteer or brought to the Advent Christmas on the day of the Fair. It is a nice way to remember the needs of others all year long.

Join us for this public witness on Sunday, Oct. 1.

YOU'RE INVITED to the Gospel of Life White Mass & Banquet | Oct. 18 | Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman

The theme is "Standing Strong for Conscience in Healthcare: A Battle that Touches Us All." With the many pressures surrounding end-of-life decisions, abortion, vaccine mandates, and even transgender drugs and surgeries, how can doctors, nurses, and patients "stand strong" in defending their conscience rights? What is conscience, exactly, from the standpoint of Catholic teaching, and what is the way forward in this very challenging time? Fr. Justin Kizewski will address these questions and more in his banquet keynote that follows the 6:00 PM "White Mass" celebrated by Bishop Callahan, a special Mass in which the faithful honor and pray for Catholic healthcare professionals. All the faithful are warmly invited to this special Mass, banquet and talk! To register ($20/person, $10/student), visit www.dioc.org/GospelofLife.

Come Follow Me!

When Peter encountered Jesus for the first time, he was busy doing his daily work—fishing. He was minding his own business when Jesus approached him and asked him to put his nets out into the deep water for a catch. Although hesitant, he did as Jesus asked him and caught an overabundance of fish! When they arrived back on shore, Jesus said to Peter, "Come, follow me..." and Peter did. Similarly, the Lord continues to work in our world today, approaching us in our normal daily lives and inviting us to consider following Him. Have you ever considered following the Lord as a priest, like Peter? Do you know of a young man whom you think the Lord may be calling to be a priest? Perhaps this is the Lord's invitation to follow Him. To begin the conversation or to inquire about what it means to be a priest, please contact me: Fr. Nate Kuhn, Director of Vocational Recruitment for the Diocese of La Crosse, 3710 East Ave. S. PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602; or by phone at: 608.791.2667. God bless you!

The Catholic Church in the United States is in the midst of a three-year Eucharistic Revival. This movement is to help all Catholics know and believe that the Eucharist is Jesus | Jesus waits for us.

After Mass, Holy Communion is reserved in the tabernacle. The red sanctuary candle in the front of the church is constantly burning to remind us that Jesus is present in the tabernacle in the sacred Host. He waits for us to come and spend some time with Him, just as we would spend time with any friend. We can speak with Him about anything and simply be quiet in order to listen to Him. It is helpful to bring a book like The Divine Encounter by Mark Hart to have something to help stay focused when distractions arise. This time with the Lord will help bring solace and peace as worries take on a proper perspective, and we will gradually know that when we receive Holy Communion, we are truly receiving Jesus.

Let’s pray this right now and every day this week:
Jesus, help me to set aside some time to spend with You in church so that You can strengthen my faith that You are truly present in Holy Communion.
This week, read how Jesus asked Peter and the Apostles to spend time with Him in prayer in Matthew 26:40.
